Surgery appointment numbers face the axe

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

DOCTORS in the fastest growing town in Suffolk, who feared jobs could go because their budget was being slashed, have now discovered they will receive even less cash than they first thought.

The Christmas Maltings Surgery in Haverhill has received its final figures from the Suffolk Primary Care Trust (PCT) and the situation is worse than originally thought – instead of an anticipated £300,000 cut, it could be as much as £400,000.

Dr Neville Selby, a senior GP at the practice, warned in May that the budget cut would mean the number of patient appointments being slashed and doctor and nurse positions axed.

He added that Haverhill had serious health care needs and, with no community hospital, GP surgeries were the main point of contact with medical services for most people.

Dr Selby said: "Under the new funding we would have to cut appointments from 80,000 a year to 45,000. It takes no account of differing local need."

Richard Spring, the town's MP, visited Ann Sissons, the practice manager to see how the cuts would affect the practice and its ability to treat patients. He has pledged to write a letter of protest to the chairman of the PCT.

After a meeting with Haverhill's GPs in May, Mr Spring blasted the PCT's handling of the funding allocations. Suffolk PCT is proposing to change the current Personal Medical Services (PMS) contracts which are used by 46 GP surgeries, two thirds of the total number in Suffolk, which serve 450,000 patients.

Mr Spring said: "I remain extremely worried about what appears to be another deepening health crisis in my constituency."

"GPs provide absolutely essential frontline services which I do not believe should be compromised in this way."

The event's purpose was to enable local groups to raise funds and give information about what they do, as well as providing a programme of events and entertainments.

Biker dies in van smash

A MOTORBIKE rider has died after a collision with a van.

The accident happened on Wednesday at the A1307 near Linton.

The dead man has been named by police as Nicholas Williams, 45, of Connaught Gardens, Braintree, Essex.

His blue and silver Suzuki bike was in a collision with a blue Vauxhall Combi van about 750 metres south-east of the Hildersham crossroads.

The van driver, a 20-year-old man from Linton, was uninjured.

Police have appealed for any witnesses to the accident, which happened at 5pm on Wednesday, to come forward.

Pc John Blood, who is investigating, said: "I would like to hear from anyone who was travelling along the A1307 who saw either the motorcyclist or the van.

"The rider of the bike was wearing black leathers and a black helmet. If you saw either vehicle in the minutes before the collision, or the collision itself, please get in touch."

Anyone with information should contact Pc Blood at the Cambridgeshire road policing unit on 0845 4564564 or call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Crop crushed

A WHEAT field at Poslingford, near Clare, was damaged when a 4x4 vehicle drove across it. A 50 acre length of the field, at Clare Road, was damaged between 6pm on Saturday and 7am on Monday.

Anyone with information can call PC Ruth Horton at the St Edmundsbury Rural South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774 100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Wheelie good times as ramps pay a visit

SKATEBOARDERS, BMX riders and in-line skaters showed off some of their best tricks as a mobile skatepark visited the town.

The skatepark is on a tour of St Edmundsbury and rolled up in Haverhill town centre on Tuesday morning, with ramps set up on the Market Square. More free sessions will be run between 11am and 3pm at Chalkstone Playing Fields on Monday, and at Clare Middle School on Wednesday. All sessions are dependant on suitable weather and staffing. The tour ends with Skate Jam 2007 later this month at Bury St Edmunds Skatepark, which is expected to attract hoards of youngsters from across the borough.

The first year of the Bury St Edmunds Skate Jam will be held on Sunday, August 19 from 12pm to 5pm at the skatepark, Olding Road, off Western Way.

It will be a day of live DJs, graffiti artists, dance workshops and stacks of prizes.

BMXers, skaters and in-liners are welcome. For more information contact Simon Pickering on (01284) 757 077.

Surgeries facing cut to funds

"The reduced level of funding the surgery is to receive is intolerable and I fully intend to take this matter further. This is one issue that Gordon Brown should place high on his introductory agenda as Prime Minister."

"My campaign to retain high quality health care services for my constituents continues."

Mrs Sissons said the funding formula was so complicated that the exact figures were still being calculated, but it was "definitely an even worse situation than anticipated".

"We cannot understand why Haverhill is losing out so badly. It is the fastest growing town, yet it is losing the On Track service and the day centre. We should be getting more services, not losing them."

Stolen cars set ablaze

TWO cars have been stolen from Haverhill over a three-day period, and both were found burnt out in Cambridgeshire.

A white Vauxhall Corsa was stolen from an on-street parking bay at Leiston Road, Haverhill, between midnight and 1.15am on Tuesday and was later found burnt out in Murrow, Cambridgeshire.

A green Ford Fiesta was stolen from Charrington Close, Haverhill, between 9.20pm on Sunday and midnight on Monday, after a window was smashed to gain entry. It was later found burnt out in Linton.

Calls in relation to the incidents should be made to Pc Guy Turnbull on (01284) 774100

Major plans for homes to 'shape town's future'

VIEWS are being sought on a huge housing development which will pave the way for Haverhill's north-west relief road.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council is calling for comments on major plans, which could see more than 750 new homes and a school created.

The area of land to the north-west of the town, between Wratting Road and Withersfield Road, has been earmarked for development in St Edmundsbury's Local Plan. The borough council has now put together a concept statement for the site, which will eventually be used by developers or landowners to draw up a masterplan to shape the huge project.

St Edmundsbury now wants people's views on the concept statement before it is discussed by councillors. The statement shows that the development could feature up to 755 new homes before 2016, a primary school, open space for recreational use and local centres, which could include shops and may also have community, health and recreation uses.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

As part of the plan, the north-west relief road linking Withersfield Road at Meldham Bridge and Wratting Road, next to the Fox public house, will be completed, enabling traffic to travel from the main Cambridge to Bury St Edmunds roads without going through the town centre.

Coun Terry Clements, portfolio holder for transport and planning at the borough council, said: "We asked for the opinions and ideas of local people at a planning workshop in March, and these views have already been used to help shape this concept statement. But this is a massive development which will change the shape of the town forever – so it's vitally important to get it right.

"We'd now like to hear from even more people so their opinions can be fed back into the planning process."

The public consultation will run until August 14, and the full concept statement is available at St Edmundsbury's offices in Lower Downs Slade, Haverhill, or at www.stedmundsbury.gov.uk

Anyone wanting to comment can fill in a form downloaded from the website and email it to LDF@stedsbc.gov.uk, or write to Planning and Engineering Services, St Edmundsbury Borough Council, St Edmundsbury House, Western Way, Bury St Edmunds, IP33 3YU.

Nursery's top marks in Ofsted debut

A POPULAR pre-school is providing a good standard of care for youngsters in its charge, according to an Ofsted report.

The Stepping Stones group, which meets at Coupals Primary School in Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, caters for 45 children aged between two and five.

The inspector's report said that provision was good, with staff working as a team and taking active measures to promote children's health. Children enjoy a wide range of physical activities which help them develop their confidence and skills. Children arriving at the pre-school are eager to join in and make their own decisions about the activities they want to explore.

"The organisation of the pre-school encourages their independence, building confidence and self-esteem. Staff support children in their chosen activity, enthusiastically helping to extend their existing knowledge and skills. Children of all ages mix freely, benefiting from observing and learning skills from their peer group. Staff interact well, encouraging children to play together and build caring relationships."

But the report said the nursery, which was being inspected for the first time, should further develop its planning systems, records of assessment and involve parents and carers more in this.

Elaine McManus, manager of the group, said they were pleased with the report, which was a reflection of the hard work of all the staff.

Town centre boss resigns from post

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE man charged with helping to kick-start Haverhill's economy – and to spend £10 million to make its Masterplan Vision a reality – has quit after just over a year in the post.

The ex-England rugby player first came to Haverhill at the start of his local government career more than 30 years ago and was appointed by St Edmundsbury Borough Council as town centre manager in April last year.

Mike Dawson, St Edmundsbury's corporate director – community, said he had accepted Mr Martin's resignation with regret and was considering the best way forward to secure a replacement and how best the post could be managed in the future.

He said: "As the first town centre manager for Haverhill, Nick has certainly got the town centre management group off to a good start.

"I am sure that all the town centre management group members will wish Nick well for the future."

Gordon Mussett, Haverhill town clerk, said the council regretted Mr Martin's decision to quit, but wished him well for the future.

In view of the resignation, Mr Mussett said it would be a good time decide whether to replace Mr Martin or whether it would be better to have a "project officer type" post, someone who could attract funding for some of the initiatives identified in the Market Towns Health Check for Haverhill.

He said: "The town council has passed a resolution to try to make the Haverhill Partnership a more independent body.

"There is money around from government sources, but is not available to borough councils or town councils, only to independent community organisations.

"I would suggest to members that we use this as an opportunity to address establishing an independent Haverhill Partnership.

"The partnership is a loose alliance funded by the borough council, which has support from the county council, the police and other groups, but is not recognised by funding organisations as being independent and community based. It is in a difficult position to try to attract money that is around for the voluntary and community sector."

The Gross rate is the contractual rate of interest payable before deduction of income tax at the rate specified by law (currently 20%).

The Net rate is the rate paid after income tax has been deducted (currently 20%).

The Annual Equivalent Rate (AER) is a notional rate which illustrates what the gross interest rate would be if interest was paid and added to the account annually. AERs on an account which pays monthly interest assumes interest is added to the account at the end of each month during the year. In practice, the option to have interest added in this way is not available on our Hallmark monthly interest option.

The Tax-free rate is the contractual rate of interest payable where interest is exempt from income tax.

All the above rates are variable. Mini Cash and TESSA Only Individual Savings Accounts (ISAs), and Cash Child Trust Fund accounts, pay interest tax-free provided all terms and conditions of the account types are met. On all other accounts, interest will be paid at the net rate after the appropriate rate of income tax (currently 20%) has been deducted, or gross on receipt of the required declaration form. Where interest is paid net, the income tax may be reclaimed if the amount deducted exceeds the investor's tax liability. Higher rate taxpayers will have to pay the extra due (the difference between tax deducted at 20% and the higher rate of 40%). Tax assumptions are based on current legislation which may change in the future. Net rates are illustrative only and have been rounded to two decimal places. Full terms and conditions are available from all our branches. Cambridge Building Society complies with The Banking Code.

NOTICE TO EXISTING BORROWERS

With effect from 2nd August 2007, the rate of interest for mortgages will increase by 0.25% per annum until further notice. The revised Variable Home Loan Rate (equivalent to Standard Variable Rate) will be 6.95% p.a. The revised Commercial Base Rate, for non owner-occupied residential loans, will be 7.45% p.a. Under the annual review system, this change of interest will be reflected in the revised monthly payments effective from March 2008.

This notice does not apply to any agreement regulated by the Consumer Credit Act 1974 or to any mortgage account operated by interim review. Those borrowers will be notified separately.

If you have any queries about this rate change, please contact your nearest branch or telephone our Customer Services Department on 01223 727727

Anglers net reel big prizes

A FISHING tackle shop has given a prize boost to a charity which helps disabled anglers.

Angler Nick Rowe, who is the figurehead of Reels-on-Wheels, paid a visit to First Cast Tackle in Sturmer Road, Haverhill, one of the biggest tackle shops in East Anglia, where proprietor Richard Massie donated some fishing tackle as raffle prizes.

Mr Massie said: "There are a lot of people who would like to get out and fish but they cannot do so without someone to help them. "I don't often get the chance to fish myself these days, but you have got to try to encourage as many people as possible to enjoy the sport.

"We make sure that our showroom is fully accessible to wheelchairs."

Parents wanted to fill role of governors

BY Jo Deeks

Email:
editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

PEOPLE who care passionately about children's education are invited to make a real contribution to their local community by becoming a school governor.

Suffolk County Council currently has vacancies in schools throughout the region, and is looking to recruit governors from the community.

Governors will be joining England's largest group of volunteers – currently some 300,000 strong – who are dedicated to raising standards in schools. Governors make key decisions with regard to the curriculum, pupil targets, health and safety, school improvements, budget, staffing and the management of premises.

Support comes from the DfES and the county council, including training for new governors in school management as well as newsletters, termly briefing documents, websites and helplines.

The emphasis is on collaboration with other governors and the head-teacher.

The amount of time that needs to be devoted to being a governor varies, but might be an average of one or two governing body meetings each term, plus one or two committee meetings.

Patricia O'Brien, portfolio holder for children, schools and young people's services, said the role of a governor was crucial. She added: "Those people who volunteer to be a school governor are taking on an important responsibility that should not be under-estimated. They make decisions that help provide a stable, consistent education for pupils in that school, without which the quality of education would suffer.

"I would urge anyone with any interest in their local school to find out more."

Stones theft from garden

SIX large granite stones were stolen from the front garden of a house in Clare.

Police believe it would have needed two people and a vehicle to transport the stones, which were taken from Hermitage Meadows between 8pm last Wednesday and 8am the following day.

On the same night, a green ceramic tub full of geraniums was stolen from the front garden of a house in Snow Hill, Clare.

Police believe it would have needed two people to lift the tub, which was taken from between 7pm and 7.30am the following day. Anyone with information about the incidents should call Pc Brendan McKenna at the St Edmundsbury Rural South Safer Neighbourhood Team on (01284) 774 100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Andrew's focus on tri-challenge

OPTICIAN Andrew Bailey has been swapping his suit and tie for a wetsuit and goggles as he prepares for the gruelling challenge of taking part in the London Triathlon.

A dispensing optician at Specs Direct in High Street, Haverhill, Andrew will travel to the capital on Sunday to complete a 1,500-metre swim in the Royal Victoria Dock, followed by a 40k cycle ride and a 10k run.

He hopes to raise at least £500 for Leukaemia Research from his effort, and will join 10,000 people taking part in the event over two days.

It will be 49-year-old Andrew's first ever triathlon and he has had just nine weeks since signing up to get himself fit for the challenge, by swimming, cycling and running three times a week.

His friends and patients have been sponsoring him for the tough event, second only to the Iron Man, which has the same disciplines, but double the distances.

Andrew, of Roman Way, Haverhill, said: "I decided to do it after my brother said I would never do it. He is 12 years younger than me, he did it last year and is doing it again this year.

"It was the challenge which attracted me and I thought I would do it for a charity rather than just doing it. There is a whole team of people for Leukaemia Research.

"I used to play squash and ski when I was younger, but I have never done anything like this before. I am a lot fitter now than I was nine weeks ago, and swimming in open water is very different, the water is so cold – everything just shuts down. The Olympians do it in about one hour 50 minutes and I am hoping to do it in three and a half to four hours."

Anyone who wants to sponsor Andrew can call into the opticians in the High Street or do so online at www.justgiving.com/andrew49

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

3 EXTRA HINTS FOR A SMOOTH MOVE...

WHO TO NOTIFY:

- ☐ Banks.
- ☐ Building Societies.
- ☐ Credit companies.
- ☐ Insurance companies.
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and Water Boards.
- ☐ Telephone company.
- ☐ Local Authority (Rating Department).
- ☐ Driving Licence authorities.
- ☐ Inland Revenue.
- ☐ Store cards and accounts.
- ☐ Other lease, hire or rental companies.
- ☐ Employer.
- ☐ Doctor.
- ☐ Dentist.
- ☐ Schools.
- ☐ Professional Bodies/Trade Unions.
- ☐ Motoring organisations.
- ☐ Newsagent.
- ☐ Friends and relatives.

■ AWARD-WINNER . . . mum Shonagh Shipp leads a Tatty Bumpkin class.

Tatty just tops, say Little Ones

YOGA classes for kids have won an award from a national children's activity website.

Tatty Bumpkin classes, run by mum-of-two Shonagh Shipp, received a bronze award from What's On For Little Ones. Shonagh runs the yoga-inspired classes in Fulbourn and Haverhill for tots aged 18-months up to school-age.

The classes are based around a bendy yoga doll called Tatty Bumpkin, which leads children on a journey as the sessions progress.

Shonagh said: "It's a fun way to get children moving around, using their imagination."

"We do yoga poses, and the children go on a different journey each week with Tatty Bumpkin. It is a great way for children to exercise and have fun at the same time."

Classes are held at the Fulbourn Institute at 10am on Wednesdays, and at Haverhill Physiotherapy Clinic at 10am on Tuesdays.

Free taster sessions are being offered. Call (01440) 708 809.

Paths for trouble-makers to be blocked with new fences

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

PLANS to improve fencing around a cemetery to reduce anti-social behaviour have won town council support.

Members of Haverhill's Community First Committee agreed to contribute £7,800 towards the scheme for the Withersfield Road cemetery, which is expected to cost more than £30,000. The council's contribution will pay for new railings and gates facing Withersfield Road.

The scheme will also include closing unofficial paths bordering the cemetery grounds and installing new security fencing and gates for parts of the cemetery that border the public footpath from Castle Lane to Broadcroft Crescent.

A report to the committee said funding was being sought from other bodies for the remainder of the project. Work on the Withersfield Road frontage is likely to go ahead next spring.

The committee heard that Pc Rupert Benyon had been co-ordinating a meeting of relevant agencies to try and address the increasing levels of anti-social behaviour in and around the cemetery.

The measures proposed are designed to reduce the opportunity for unauthorised access into the cemetery when it is closed.

Plea for recruits to back foundation bid

MEMBERS of the Suffolk Mental Health team were out on the streets of Haverhill last week, signing people up to back their bid for foundation status.

The Suffolk Mental Health Partnership NHS Trust held a public consultation event at the town's arts centre.

The partnership wants to become Suffolk's first NHS Foundation Trust, which will give members of the public a greater chance to influence the services it provides by joining as members.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

The trust was also seeking feedback on its plans for mental health and learning disability services in Haverhill.

If trust status is granted, any surplus in the local budget could be ploughed back into local services, rather than going back into national NHS funds.

Robert Nesbitt, a member of the partnership, said: "The more Haverhill people who sign up as members, the bigger voice Haverhill will have, so it is really important we get as many as possible so they don't lose out."

In its foundation application, the partnership says its aim is to become one of the top 10 mental health, learning disability and substance misuse trusts by 2011. It said one in four people will have a mental health problem during their lifetime, and that mental illness accounts for a third of all illness and 40 per cent of all disability in Britain, costing around £77 billion a year in lost earnings.

New-look legion hall to re-open

■ Brian Tyrrell.

A BRITISH Legion Hall is set to re-open after extensive refitting and improvements to its kitchen.

The Kedington and District branch said the hall, in Haverhill Road, Kedington, will re-open on Monday.

Around £5,000 has been spent on the fitting of new kitchen units, new flooring and improvements to the electrical fittings, with the kitchen completely re-decorated. It is the final stage in a project, which has been implemented over the past two years to bring about improvements to the hall.

Brian Tyrrell, branch secretary, said: "The members and committee of the branch are grateful to all those who have made donations and helped raise the money to fund these improvements. They are particularly grateful to the Rev Karen Knight, the local councillor of Suffolk County Council, and the council for making a grant of £1,000 from the Locality Budget."

The hall is used by many local organisations and is available for hire for private functions. For more information, contact Mr Tyrrell on (01440) 703812.

Hunt for vandals

SIX MALE youths wearing hooded tops were seen stealing the badge from the bonnet of a Mercedes car in Haverhill.

The incident happened on the Parkway estate between 2am and 2.10am last Friday. Anyone with information should call Pc Sarah Shepherd at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774 100, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Quiz the police

MEMBERS of the Haverhill North and South Safer Neighbourhood Teams will be holding regular surgeries at their office at Havebury Housing on Manor Road.

Summer music aids charity

A RECENT Strawberry Tea with music for a summer's evening raised £130 for Salvation Army social work in Britain.

Captain Stuart Ashman thanked all of those who made the event, at the Salvation Army Hall in Haverhill, a success. Musical entertainment was provided by Anne Mills, vocal, accompanied by Gwen Cracknell on piano.

Lynn Bond, accompanied by Iris Webb, gave clarinet and saxophone solos, with Wendy Bond playing a flute solo and Anita Bond a clarinet solo. Charlotte Goodall performed two pieces on violin, and Lynn and Iris also played piano duets.

Shady play days ahead for pupils

PUPILS at a primary school will be able to cool off in a new shaded area of their playground with help from diners at a local Chinese restaurant.

The new facility will soon be provided at Burton End Primary School in Haverhill, with parents and staff helping to build it.

Lin Chi, manager of the Taste of China restaurant at Birdbrook, went along to the school before the end of the academic year to hand over a cheque for £600 raised for the Burton End Playground Equipment Fund at a charity night. Lin, whose five-year-old son attends the school, said the event had been a great success, with diners tucking into a three-course meal, with entertainment and supporting raffle. She said: "We like to support local schools and be part of the local community."

Fay Trussler, head teacher at Burton End, said its 300 pupils would welcome the new shaded area. She said: "We are very grateful to the restaurant, and also to the Friends of the School, who have also contributed."

Full steam ahead for old machines

■ MODELS FROM A BYGONE ERA . . . Bruce Rice with some of his machines at a previous steam weekend.

GIANTS of steam will be making stately progress to Horseheath Racecourse this weekend for the annual Thurlow and Haverhill Steam and Country Show. For the third time, Saturday and Sunday's show will be held on the racecourse, beside the A1307 between Linton and Haverhill. Organisers are pleased to welcome back many familiar exhibits, along with some new ones this year. There will be around 25 full-size steam engines of all types, and it is hoped some will demonstrate the work they carried out in years gone by.

A large number of other vintage vehicles are also expected to attend, including cars, motorcycles and tractors. Stationary engines will be present, along with models, bygones and fairground organs. A variety of trade and craft stalls will be open for business, as well as many types of refreshments, a beer tent and an assortment of fairground attractions.

The exhibits will parade for the public each day in the arena. On Saturday, visitors can see the Red Barrows display team, and on Sunday the Glenmoriston Pipe Band will perform.

The show opens from 10am to 4pm on both days, with the Red Barrows show on Saturday at 2pm and one performance by the Glenmoriston Pipe Band on Sunday at noon and another during the afternoon.

Entry is £5 for adults, £4 for pensioners and £1 for children, with free car parking. All money raised goes to local charities and good causes

Ruling on home upheld

A PLANNING Inspector has dismissed an appeal against the refusal of planning permission by St Edmundsbury Borough Council to build a new house to replace an existing one at Lynn Crest, Crowland Road, Haverhill.

The Inspector supported the council's view that the development would harm the privacy, light and outlook for neighbours.

Court plans

WOODLAND next to Rectory Cottage in Rectory Road, Kedington, could be chopped down to become a domestic garden with construction of a hard tennis court. A change of use application to allow the development has been made to St Edmundsbury Borough Council by Danielle Donougher.

Flats appeal

A PLANNING appeal has been lodged against St Edmundsbury Borough Council's decision to refuse planning permission for six flats on the site of a former shop at 83 High Street, Haverhill.

Plaque plans to honour town slave trade fighter

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

YOUNGSTERS want to put up a plaque to commemorate a forgotten hero of Haverhill, whose name was unearthed during research into the abolition of slavery.

After delving into local history records, students at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College in Haverhill were amazed to discover that in 1792, Haverhill grocer James Wright joined the movement to abolish slavery by refusing to sell sugar in his shop – believed to be the only one in the town at the time – because it was “stained with human blood”.

The Wright family were prominent in Haverhill in the 1840s and owned property at Burton End and Market Square.

Now, the group of Year 9 students – who worked with St John's College, Cambridge, as well as the Bury and Ipswich record offices as part of their history project to mark the 200th anniversary of slavery's abolition – are hoping to have a plaque installed somewhere in Haverhill to remember his efforts.

Andy Presto, the history teacher leading the project, said around 200 letters had already been written, and some would be sent to the town council.

He said it had been pure chance that a document at the Bury Records Office had revealed the local connection with the abolition movement.

He said: “History is usually studied

■ ‘REMEMBER HIM’...

through books and the idea of this was to try and bring it to life by looking at real records from this area.

“We knew about Thomas Clarkson at Ipswich and that there were a lot of Quakers in Haverhill, but to find the document with this real local history in it was just gold dust to us. It was said at the time that Wright would not be ‘soon forgotten’ and we feel he should be remembered in the town in some way.

“The whole project has gone down with the pupils really well. They seemed to like the fact that we were learning about local people and how they were connected to big moments in history.”

Student Chantelle Iron, 14, said: “It was interesting to find out about James Wright. It is really hard to imagine what happened to the slaves and how they were treated. I think he was brave to do what he did as he could have lost everything he had.”

Alastair Kidd wrote in his letter: “James Wright was, and still is, significant as the slave trade could still be around if he didn't stop selling his sugar products. The least Haverhill could do to remember him is have a memorial bench or a plaque.”

Houses tour for tenants

MEMBERS of Havebury Housing Partnership's Tenants' Forum joined local MP David Ruffley at the Houses of Parliament to discuss issues on affordable housing in West Suffolk.

The trip coincided with Prime Minister Gordon Brown's pledge to make affordable housing top of his agenda over the coming year.

Forum members were joined by representatives of Friends of Havebury and Havebury's Stronger Communities Team for their annual away day.

The trip included a tour of the House of Commons, House of Lords and various rooms used by the Queen during the State Opening of Parliament.

Tom Murray, board director and vice chair of the tenants' forum, said: “The tour of the House of Commons was extremely good and our time with David Ruffley was excellent.

“He answered all of our questions and was full of praise for Havebury as an organisation and its staff.”

Welsh superstar at Last Night of Proms

By Nik Shelton

Opera superstar Katherine Jenkins returns to Audley End to headline the spectacular Last Night of the Proms concert on Sunday. Since clinching the largest deal in UK classical recording history, Katherine has performed for the Queen, sung with musical icons from Bryan Adams to Plácido Domingo, and captivated millions of rugby fans with her haunting renditions of the Welsh national anthem. But the mezzo-soprano is not so proud of her first public performance. "When I was four I came running out of school saying 'mum, mum, there's a talent show at school and I need to learn a song'," she recalls. "So she taught me a song called Going Down the Garden to Eat Worms, which I performed with all the actions she had taught me. "Thanks a bunch mum! Everyone thought it was really cute but I squirm with embarrassment at the thought." Though it's a slightly shameful memory, that schoolgirl performance was enough to convince Katherine that she had found her niche. "Because I had such a good response the seed was planted and I realised that singing was what I wanted to do," she enthuses, in her soft South Wales lilt. "Then I won choirgirl of the year when I was 10 and thought, okay, maybe I could do this!" Universal Classics certainly thought so when they snapped up Katherine at the age of 23 – at the time working as a music teacher – handing her a six-album deal. And just three years down the line, the shy schoolgirl from Neath has been transformed into an international superstar. The fastest selling female opera singer since Maria Callas, she has sold out the world's biggest venues including the Sydney Opera House and the Albert Hall and notched up sales of more than two million records. There's no rest for the 26-year-old this summer with a busy schedule of outdoor concerts including the Last Night of the Proms at Audley End. "I'm really lucky to be performing in beautiful stately homes like Audley End. I've got lovely memories of the first time I came – the audience were wonderful. I love the fact you can have a relationship with the audience and a bit of banter." Katherine Jenkins performs at Last Night of the Proms with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra at Audley End on Sunday. For tickets call 0870 890 0146 or visit www.picnicconcerts.com

MOTORING

CR-V turns into an SUV star

THERE'S a question in Honda's 4x4 press kit, which goes: what is the general direction for the latest CR-V?

The firm's own 50-word waffle-along answer can be readily dismissed and substituted with one: up, writes Phil Vaughan.

Forget the old CR-V – it's nothing at all like the striking new model, which is a different car for a different market. What was once a middling off-roader is now a sports utility superstar.

Indeed, you can now forgive any CR-V owner for developing a superiority complex: incredibly, the EX, or top-of-range, CR-V's equipment list is stuffed to bursting with no less than 85 items – three of them in the advanced safety pack of active front lights, cruise control, and collision-braking, which applies the anchors if you get too close to the car in front.

A standard items list has never looked so good – it's the kind of offer-you-can't-refuse package that would make any Corleone family Don proud.

Each and every bit of kit – MP3 connection, DVD satnav, rear parking camera, panoramic glass roof, and even the double-decker cargo shelf – strongly underscores Honda's easy upward step into the sophisticated world of BMW X3, Land Rover Freelander2, and so on.

But the mark-up is much less. Honda is asking just £23,527 for the CR-V 2.0i EX and all that comes with it, or £25,527 with the Advanced Safety Pack.

The tested 1,997cc petrol engine, with six-speed manual gearbox, may not make up too many of the 22,000 new CR-Vs Honda expects to sell in Britain each year, because the acclaimed 2.2-litre turbo diesel unit will take the lion's share.

The diesel returns 43.5mpg on the combined cycle, against the petrol's 34.9mpg – so the high mileage motorist should opt for the oil burner.

Don't split hairs over choice – both power packs make for good towing vehicles, with not-so-hot ground clearance, the CR-V isn't going to see a lot of mud sucking away at the tyres on its 18-inch alloy wheels.

The 2.0i CR-V is an easy mover up to the legal limit, capable of 118mph, and quicker than it looks with the 0 to 62mph time at 10.2 seconds. It holds the road well, with the chassis and suspension stifling most of the body roll, and the comfort in the roomy cabin equals your favourite armchair – the EX leather interior helps. Four-wheel drive is part-time, but all four wheels will be driven if the automatic set-up senses the need for it.

The inclusion of a space-saver spare wheel has boosted boot space to a standard 556-litres, about double that of a small family car. Flip down the rear seats to treble that capacity if you load it up to the glass roof.

Finally, among the mainstream manufacturer warranties – let's exclude the Hyundai and Kia five and seven-year deals – Honda's is one of the most realistic, over three years or 90,000 miles use, with five years on the exhaust, plus 12-years structural corrosion cover.

■ POPULAR PANDA... Fiat's small car has a big following.

Fourth title for Panda

FIAT is celebrating a second major honour this year for its Panda supermini, after winning City Car of the Year in the 2007 Auto Express New Car Honours for the fourth time in succession. This latest award follows Panda's Best Small Car category win in the same magazine's Used Car Honours earlier this year. Voted Car of the Year 2004 Panda has since attracted a stream of awards with its winning combination of environmental compatibility, low running costs, high build quality and residual value. Panda prices start at £6,995 on the road.

Makers urged to use ESC as standard kit

NEW research published by the Department for Transport shows vehicles equipped with Electronic Stability Control (ESC) are 25 per cent less likely to be involved in fatal accidents.

In addition, new research released by Thatcham this week reveals that less than half of new cars sold in the UK have ESC fitted as standard. This compares poorly with 58 per cent in Germany and 75 per cent in Sweden. While progress on standard fitment has been made, with a rise of seven per cent over 2006 figures, this level of fitment remains disappointing, since approximately 380 lives could be saved annually if the UK motorist had the same fitment levels as those in Scandinavia.

Researchers from the insurer-funded research centre based in Thatcham, Berkshire are urging manufacturers to fit ESC as standard across their model ranges to help prevent the risk of collisions and cut unnecessary deaths.

Business leaders will be alerted to the life saving car technology and its availability on models marketed to UK fleets when attending the 'Driving for Better Business' road safety initiative launched by HRH Prince Michael of Kent at Northamptonshire's Rockingham Circuit.

With fleet sales accounting for the majority of new car sales in the UK each year, business leaders are experiencing a difficult choice when choosing vehicles that will protect their drivers as only two models, the Volkswagen Golf and Passat, from the top 10 models based on non-private car sales in 2006, have ESC fitted as standard.

In Sweden, both Vauxhall and Toyota supply every car in their entire model range with ESC fitted as standard. However, in the UK, the ESC fitment on Vauxhalls and Toyotas is sadly lacking, with only two models from each of these ranges sold with ESC as standard.

Matthew Avery, Thatcham's crash research manager, comments: "While we have seen some improvement of fitment levels Thatcham's message to vehicle manufacturers' must be – you know ESC can make a real difference in preventing accidents occurring, you have an obligation to fit this technology as standard across all your model ranges. ESC is a fundamental safety device; think seat belts, think airbags, think ESC."

For further details of Thatcham's 2007 ESC Fitment Ratings see www.thatcham.org

Road rage and accidents are top of drivers' worry list

DRIVERS are as worried about becoming a road rage victim as they are of having a car accident, a new survey has shown.

Road rage and accidents top the list of driving phobias in the poll from Saga Motor Insurance.

The next biggest worry for motorists is driving close to lorries, with road users also concerned about driving during bad weather and poor road surfaces.

Based on responses from 2,610 adults, the survey also showed:

- 50 per cent of men, but only 23 per cent of women are not worried about anything when driving;
- Drivers in northern Scotland are the most fearless on the road, while Midlands worry the most;

- Drivers over 50 are less worried about having an accident than those under 50;
- 20 per cent of women, but only three per cent of men, are anxious about driving on a motorway;

- 16 per cent of women, but only seven per cent of men, worry about being able to park properly.

Classy Mondeo 'Ford's best ever'

CAR GIANT Ford may be facing a financial crisis and in the throes of selling off several of its premium brands, but that hasn't stopped it picking up awards for its models elsewhere.

The company's new Mondeo has been named "Car of the Year" by Auto Express magazine, as well as wowing the judges in the Best Family Car and Best Estate Car classes.

"The new Mondeo is Ford's finest ever car," said Auto Express editor-in-chief, David Johns.

"Each and every model, whether hatchback, saloon or estate, has been designed and engineered to the highest standards.

The car oozes quality, especially in the cabin which has levels of equipment and comfort which sets new standards for the class." Other winners included the Vauxhall Corsa, which picked up the "Best Supermini" award, Honda Civic, which won "Best Compact Family Car" the Citroen C4 Picasso, which won "Best MPV".

■ AWARD WINNER . . . the new Mondeo has exceptional levels of cabin equipment.

Similarity is a big turn-off

■ SAMEY . . . the Vauxhall Zafira isn't unusual enough to stand out.

■ STYLISH . . . the Honda Civic is easily recognised.

ONLY a quarter of motorists can recognise popular new car models according to research from New Car Net, leading to accusations that a lot of new cars' designs are all too similar to each other.

New Car Net stripped a selection of 10 vehicles of identifiable markings and then showed them to a selection of motorists to gauge how much of a visual impression they left.

The futuristically styled Honda Civic was perhaps unsurprisingly the most easily recognised, while Vauxhall's Zafira MPV was the most anonymous.

The Ford Focus came second behind the Civic, reflecting its position as the biggest selling car in the UK.

BMW's 1 Series also benefited from its distinctive styling, coming third.

New Car Net's Massimo Pini said: "Car manufacturers are turning to retro-inspired designs like the Fiat 500 and the Mini because they seem to be struggling to achieve recognition with more contemporary styling.

"The majority of drivers can identify these iconic vehicles immediately, but the new Honda Civic's performance in our survey proves that bolder and more courageous designs can be just as recognisable.

"The problem is that with so much at stake on the success or failure of new models, it's all too easy to adopt a 'me-too' approach to car design these days, with new vehicles simply blending into the background of other similarly bland machines."

Help in navigating the floods

WITH more wet weather forecast, the RAC is advising motorists to take extra care on the roads and to avoid flooded areas.

Firstly, only travel if your journey is really necessary. Then plan your route to avoid affected areas (use RAC route planner/listen to local radio stations for traffic updates). Let relatives and friends know your route and expected time of arrival and, where possible, travel with others.

Carry extra warm, waterproof clothing and suitable footwear in case you have to abandon your vehicle, and food and drink in case you get stranded. Carry a mobile phone with a fully charged battery and car adaptor if available (and contact numbers). Ensure the fuel tank is full - being stuck in traffic and using lights, heater etc all uses a lot more fuel.

When driving in flooded conditions:

■ Do not try to drive through water if you are unsure of the depth - the kerb is a good indicator.

■ If you do go through, drive on the highest section of the road.

■ Drive steadily and slowly so as not to create a bow wave. Let oncoming traffic go first.

■ Never attempt to drive through fast flowing water - you could easily get swept away.

■ Test your brakes after leaving flood water.

■ Driving fast through deep water can cause serious damage. If your engine cuts out after driving through deep water, do not attempt to restart it.

■ Call for help and have the vehicle professionally examined.

■ If your steering suddenly feels light driving through standing water you could be aquaplaning.

■ To regain grip, ease off the accelerator, do not brake and allow speed to reduce until you gain full control again.

Manheim adds motorcycle marketing support to its portfolio

MANHEIM, the world's largest automotive services organisation, has acquired NXGN, the UK's leading provider of online motorcycle marketing solutions for manufacturers such as Yamaha, Suzuki and Kawasaki, and retail dealers.

In a deal which will see the business integrated into Manheim's subsidiary Portfolio Europe, both companies are very bullish about the opportunities ahead.

John Simpson, managing director of Portfolio Europe said: "Portfolio is already the market leader in the provision of used car marketing programmes in the UK and Continental Europe. What we do in the car sector, NXGN does for the retail motorcycle trade.

"NXGN's DealerNET product is used by nearly all the UK's key motorcycle manufacturers and dealer networks. Our respective services are a great fit and being able to combine the passion and innovative culture of both businesses will provide major benefits to all our customers."

NXGN was formed in 1998 by the current chief executive, Alex Quinlan, who is staying with the company to assist Simpson with the UK integration. Once completed, Quinlan will move across to Manheim operations in the USA to spearhead the launch of motorcycle marketing support into this important market.

In the UK, NXGN provides website design and management, plus national used bike stock locators for big brands such as Ducati, Yamaha, Triumph, Suzuki, Aprilia, Kawasaki and BMW.

Commenting on the acquisition,

Mr Quinlan said: "To be part of Manheim really gives us the platform we need to expand our services and influence in other markets. The NXGN team has driven change in the motorcycle industry and is really excited about this move. We're all looking forward to working closely with our new colleagues to share ideas and develop best practice across the car and motorcycle sectors."

Dellar's men power to top of the table

ADAM Dellar hit 60 as Haverhill knocked Tuddenham off top spot in Division Three of the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship and claimed pole position for themselves by beating their local rivals by 15 runs.

Simon Youngs added 59 and Dan Poole 37 as Haverhill set a target of 216 for 4.

Tuddenham got off to a good start in reply before Haverhill's attack took hold, with skipper Rob Sullivan taking 4 for 64 and Joe Woodley 3 for 31.

The hosts were finished off for 201 in the penultimate over by Russell Davies' spectacular 50-metre throw, from the boundary, hitting the stumps and running out the last man.

■ WESTON COLVILLE and Cambridge St Giles had to settle for a draw in their Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts Premier League, Division One, match.

Mihir Vagh's unbeaten 50 brought St Giles' to within touching distance of their first win of the season, but their effort was not quite enough.

Colville batted first to put up 156 for 9 as Trevor Westley (31), Andy Brightmore (23) and Peter Bragg (30) shared the runs, while Alan Roger was the pick of the bowlers with 4 for 41.

Ben Potter got St Giles' response off to a solid start with 28, but the game looked to be slipping away at 88 for 7. Vagh (54) and an unbeaten 37 from David Miller brought them back from the brink, but they finished shy on 151 for 8.

■ HORSEHEATH were left reeling by whizzkid Viktor Dixon as his six-wicket haul set Camden II on their way to a comprehensive 88-run triumph in Division One of the Cheffins CCA Senior League.

The 16-year-old leg-spinner claimed 6 for 62 and was backed up by Michael Griggs (3 for 15) to bowl out the visitors for 178 after Camden had posted 266 for 4.

Will Sutton hit 71 and Ali Khan made a destructive 64 from 43 balls to give Nigel Dixon's side a flying start. Alex Mutucumarana made an unbeaten 49 to push them past 250, with Martin Giles (3 for 56) being the best with the ball.

Dan Goldsmith scored 57 for the travelling side, but the young Dixon proved too good as he left Gary Ellis' men bamboozled.

Skipper Dixon said: "It was a very good victory and gives us a little more confidence for the rest of the season. We'd like to have a good end to the year and finish in the top three."

FOOTBALL

Morrison happy with United

MICHAEL Morrison is focused on getting Cambridge United back into League football, despite receiving overtures from higher level clubs.

An ever-present last season, the 19-year-old defender was the subject of an offer from League One club Southend two months ago, only for United to snub the undisclosed bid.

The Haverhill youngster, who has another year on his contract, had also previously experienced the high life during trials with the Premiership likes of Chelsea, Everton and Newcastle.

But the England C international said he was concentrating purely on ensuring that United have a successful season. He said: "It was nice to know the club value you as a player and see you as key."

"To have interest from the

■ MICHAEL MORRISON . . . looking at promotion for U's.

League was flattering, but it was nice of them to hold out and say 'you're one of our better players' and my main aim is getting Cambridge United up the league and doing well with them.

"There is an attraction in Cambridge United after being a League club, so I wasn't surprised that we got good players in and it is really great we have got those players."

"Hopefully, we can do all right this year, a lot better than last year, and we hope we won't be in those circumstances again."

Morrison said he was pleased with how pre-season training had gone so far and believed United were building up to a promising campaign.

He said: "We've got all-new kit, have got more specialised training plans and it looks as if everything is going to done more professionally to give ourselves the best opportunity"

But Morrison felt it was vital deeds on the pitch matched the words of optimism emerging from the United camp.

He said: "It is definitely the aim to have a play-off campaign, but that has been said the last three years when we have done well in the summer. We just want a good start and to take it game by game and see where that takes us."

Carter and Bailey on target with hat-tricks

WRATTING visited the home of Burwell Tigers for the opening friendly match of the new season. With both squads depleted due to holidays, Wrating secured a deserved 3-1 half-time lead, with new signing Alex Carter notching his first for the club and Will Bailey scoring a double. The second period saw Wrating start with some good passing football, but they were unable to convert possession into goals and they were punished when the home team fired back with a quick double to level the scores. This spurred the visitors on and they dominated the remainder of the game with Carter and Will Bailey completing hat tricks and Harrison scoring a fantastic goal from range. At the end of the match, it was agreed to let the lads have a penalty shoot-out with both teams having eight spot-kicks each.

It was time for Wrating keeper Ben Eames to show his outstanding ability as he managed to keep out all but one of the Burwell penalties. Wrating were far more successful with six of eight finding the back of the net. Wrating squad: Ben Eames, Kieran Harrison, Sean Elsom, Paul Jenkinson, Joshua Ruthven, Leon Bailey, Alex Carter, William Bailey.

Tom's next step along the road to England

■ TEST PLACE... Tom Westley, from Weston Colville, who has been named in the England Under-19 squad for this weekend's Test match against Pakistan.

Published and printed by the proprietors, Cambridge Newspapers, Ltd, Winship Road, Milton, Cambridge CB24 6PP. Telephone 01223 434434; Fax (Editorial) 434415; Fax (Advertising) 434222. Registered as a Newspaper with the Post Office.

TEENAGE sensation Tom Westley has taken another step towards stardom after being named in the England under-19 squad for the series against Pakistan.

The 18-year-old Saffron Walden batsman is having a fine season in the Essex second XI, and is proud to have been picked to represent his country in the two Tests next month.

And having worn the three lions on his chest at under-15, 16 and 17 level, the Weston Colville-based star will now be competing alongside players a year older than him for his country.

Westley said: "It's the year above me, so I feel very privileged to be picked. It was quite out of the blue, so to get recognised in the Test squad is amazing."

"The under-19s is a big thing and it's good to be playing in the age group above."

"It's a squad of 12, but hopefully I'll play in both Tests."

"It will be a big challenge as Pakistan are renowned for being a very strong side and they produce good young players. They have a lot of fast bowlers and good batsmen."

Westley could also be packing his bags and heading to Malaysia for the Under-19 World Cup in February, having been named in a 20-man monitoring squad ahead of the tournament.

The whizzkid, who made his first-class debut for Essex against Cambridge UCCE at Fenner's in May, is settling in nicely alongside players such as Ravi Bopara, James Foster and Andy Bichel.

And only the weather has prevented Westley from playing, in the LV County Championship and the Natwest Pro40 League, for the first team.

He said: "I received an email saying I was in a squad of 20 for the World Cup, and they're monitoring me for that, looking at my results and performances and keeping me in the frame."

"I was due to play for Essex against Somerset, but when they pulled the covers back it was too green and they played an extra spinner, which was a shame."

"And I would've played at Old Trafford against Lancashire recently, which was live on Sky, but the game was rained off."

"But it's going well and I'm scoring runs regularly for the second team, and I'm hoping to maintain my form through until the winter."

The first Test against Pakistan, starts on Saturday.

Haverhill slip to defeat in cup thriller

HAVERHILL Golf Club's away tie in the Curry Cup at Stowmarket was a tense affair.

The away side were ahead after the morning foursomes by four points to two, but, unfortunately, the momentum failed to carry on through during the singles matches as Stowmarket captured eight of the 12 points available to win the match by 10-8.

Haverhill conclude their league programme when Epping are the visitors to Coupals Road.

■ The short par three, eighth hole at the Coupals Road course has suddenly unaccountably started producing aces and the latest to achieve this feat was Howard Ward, who required a wedge to hole out on the 128-yard hole.

■ Two matches were played during the week and both were at home and saw wins for Haverhill.

The Seniors beat Newton Green by 4½ games to 3½, while a mixed team saw off the challenge of a Girton GC team.
